Co-production opportunities

The state system of financing assumes a separate section for co-produced projects. To submit a co-production project for state financing in Ukraine, the Ukrainian producer partner is required.

In 2004, Ukraine joined the European Convention on Cinematographic Co-Production.

During 2017, several Ukraine-co-produced films were successfully presented at international film festivals: Festival de Cannes, Berlinale, Locarno IFF, Karlovy Vary IFF and Rotterdam IFF:

UGLY by Yuri Rechinsky, Austria-Ukraine

SCHOOL NUMBER 3 by Yelizaveta Smith and Georg Genoux, Germany-Ukraine

KROTKAYA by Sergei Loznitsa, France-Russia-Ukraine-Netherlands-Lithuania

FROST by Sarunas Bartas, Lithuania-France-Ukraine-Poland

THE LINE by Peter Bebjak, Slovakia-Ukraine -Czech Republic

EASY by Andrea Magnani, Ukraine -Italy

Cash rebate program is planned for 2018. Both non-Ukrainian and Ukrainian production companies will be eligible for cash rebates:

Feature film > 74 min

Animation > 74 min

Documentary > 52 min

TV (animation) series > 40 min

AD/music video > 20 sec

The rebates will be guaranteed and measured as

16,6% cash rebates for qualified production expenses,

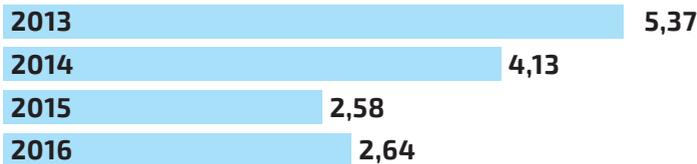

10% rebates or the foreign talent fees paid in Ukraine.
